

Disaster Strikes! Does Your House of Worship Have a Plan?

The Delaware Council of Faith-Based Partnerships, in cooperation with Delaware Emergency Management Agency and Delaware Citizen Corps, presents a free

Emergency Preparedness Workshop for Faith Leaders

Wednesday, June 18, 2014

Lunch, 11:30 am to 12 noon. Workshop, 12 noon to 3 pm.

Delaware Emergency Management Agency

165 Brick Store Landing Road, Smyrna, DE 19977

Is your house of worship prepared for a natural or man-made disaster?
Are your members ready for the next hurricane, flood, or snowstorm?
Would you like to learn more about assisting your neighbors in times of crisis?

Tour the Delaware Emergency Management Agency Operations Center.
Learn about preparing your house of worship and members of your faith community for disasters.
Connect with other full-time and lay faith leaders and discover service partnerships.
Learn about free training opportunities.

The luncheon and workshop are free, but seating is limited and registration is required by June 1st. To register, please call Flora at (302) 633-4825 or email de.cfbp@gmail.com.

The Delaware Council of Faith-Based Partnerships was created by Governor Jack Markell, through executive order, in January 2012. Council members serve as interfaith volunteers and the Council operates without funding. The Council partners with government agencies and non-profit groups to address community needs. Currently, the following faiths are represented on the Council: African Methodist Episcopal, Baptist, Episcopalian, Jewish, Latter-day Saints (Mormon), Muslim, Presbyterian and Roman Catholic.